

Mystic Aquarium rocked and swayed this year to the infectious rhythms and tunes of the Latin Heartbeat Orchestra during our first ever Celebrating Latinos in Science event. Having this terrific group performing in our main exhibit area created a festive, upbeat atmosphere which is exactly what we wanted. Our guests loved them. We plan to build this event in the years to come, and The Latin Heartbeat Orchestra will continue to be part of the winning formula. Oye como va!

-Peter Glankoff
Executive Vice President
Mystic Aquarium